- Being the Master Programming/Reality chip·human of this 3rd Demensional Energy Presence can definitely get confusing. Doing this in collaboration is exponentially more positive and confusing. From the most Unbiased, Indifferent, Neutral, Omni-Present perspective you are able to find, I invite you to ask these questions:

① In what ways have I undermined or devalued myself?
② In what ways do I nurture myself?
③ What are my intentions?
④ Are my actions equal and authentic representations of the value I create in the world?

[Your subjective experience and answers to these questions only matter to YOU.] In order to Function on higher levels and be the Vibration of your true Self, Your Ego and Empath must both bow to each other in defeat, Kneel to one another in honor, and heal one another out of Love. Between two People it can be beneficial to agree that objectively, the answers are greater than or equal to:

① The psycological spectrum of "Ego" and "Empath"
② Self Worth ③ Omniscent placement on Spectrum

0 = Change 1 = Stay the same [Both remain constant and are valid as long as there is preference]

My higher purpose in this Lifetime is to Seek out, Connect and Nurture a direct Relationship with my Placenta. Though not physically present in my day-to-day Realities, I truly believe there is Peace, Wisdom, and Love to be shared through this process of thought and Emotion. I consider the ability to experience Emotion - in all of its forms - one of Humankind's strongest Attributes, though it can often be taken for granted or even ignored completely. The Placenta is the bringer of life and fought for each of us to be here. Afterbirth is not an After thought; it's the thought that you can always count on. — Lei.

I was around 9 years old the first time I ever really accessed the internal feeling of peace; The Silenced Mind. Dad and I were on our way to baseball practice although neither of us cared too much about baseball. I in particular was having a "bad day" and everything was very overstimulating. Uncomfortable even.
The music in the car was too loud and Dad was talking at me from the driver seat, expecting me to give full attention. I couldn't though. Everything was too much and I had no way of expressing that in the moment. I had to accept that I absolutely would not be able to feel understood in this circumstance. Just as I became aware of this, we turned left and I happened to look out of my window. Passing us was an Elderly couple in an old Buick.

"They're probably going grocery shopping," I thought. "I'm glad that's not me." All of the sudden, I became grateful for my position and in control of some part of my Awareness and Senses. I closed my eyes and shifted the focus from my eyes to my ears - outward. And all at once, the high pitch frequency of "Silence" engulfed my inner voice. I was present, alert, and willing to be seperate from my environment. Nothing mattered or existed in this Silenced Mind, its own formless entity experiencing its own creation.

I choose to Surrender Myself; my half, of the decision being made.
Not out of Indecisiveness, out of preference. If this life is believed into creation through collaborative efforts of Me and the Universe, then in this moment of time [8:00 AM March 02, 2022] {Wednesday} it was decided that my imagination can only limit the greatest possibilities presented or Created in the microcosm of our QuaZaR. There is no right, wrong, best, or worst; for, I am able to React how I wish; define or Redefine as I wish; I am allowed to change and discover or adapt without being thrown off of my life path. I remain open to the connection with my higherself, but discontinue the daily need/desire of guidance. I trust myself, my intuition, and know that the Universe is working with me, through me, for me, and around me from within me.
the obstacles I perceive are really Myself... and to nurture this obstacle, I found Relinquishing my own control of the outcome is suiting.. Truly I want nothing more than to create every detail of my life, ales deep down I know that I deserve better than I could imagine, and give that power to the only essence with the strength to use it; the All.

Thank ya for life, for pain and happiness, and my family.
Thank ya for the opportunity to have experiences and relate to others. Thank ya for Me. I Love Me.

Once upon a time, twice within your soul, and three times over again for good measure, there happened through a blind man. His whole life, he was told he was blind and eventually he believed them too. It started when he was a boy-old enough to get grounded but still too small to hit; A perfect age for mischief. Come along through this story and see how mischief can wear many faces and play into unlikely motives; sprout from uninterpretable seeds, and still be totally recognizable.

[Spoken] but first, let me demonstrate proper introduction of context. I am the eternal changing, the settled stardust between your breath, the composted emotions, recycled memories, the waisted trash that we all are obsessed with "forgetting about"/"Ignoring"... I am the winds pushing your Immortal chariot, you may know me as Death.

and today, I'm feeling a bit chipper... nostalgic even, and it's put me in the mood to expose some finer details within the ego- my inner psyche.

Do you find it difficult to Identify and present who YOU [are / ~~where~~ were / will-be] in this shared perception of 3D realism?

You might Be / have the condition known as ~~A~~ Human!

Answer these STATEMENTS (fill In) / AdLib / ~~OR~~ don't. I don't care but coming this far and not is kinda like.... okay bro... [insert ThumbsUP]
